

PAID TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Bloom: Transgender Community Healing Project and Peacock Rebellion, in collaboration with Transgender Law Center, are launching a 4-month peer advocacy training program.

PAYMENT

$75 per session attended for up to $300 total!

DATES

Mid-January through Mid-April (Final Dates TBA)

DETAILS

The program will train a group of 20 members of the transgender community to build a culture of safety and legal knowledge in their communities.

Attendees will be able to serve as peer-advocates to help peers with ID document change; navigate encounters with law enforcement, medical professionals, gatekeepers, and other situations; and build community organizing skills.

TO APPLY

Email lexi@peacockrebellion.org for more info, questions, and the application.

This program is made possible with support from the Fund for Trans Generations' rapid response fund (housed at Borealis Philanthropy) and by individual donors.
